PENN WINS IN THE SLUSH. Cornell Beaten 17 to 6-Score Was a Tie in First Half.

New York, Nov. 25.—Fordham and Syracuse played a tie game, 5 to 5, on a snow-covered gridiron at Amer-ican league park this afternoon. Each team made a single touchdown. Gardner scored in the first half for Syra-cuse. Because of the biting wind and bad weather conditions, the time of the halves was cut to twenty minutes. Springfield Man's Weight to Man's Weight

Central Village saw a tip-top aftershowed that they were considerably disgruntled to have their favorite, Bill Collins, lose to Jim Barnes of Spring field in the start bout of the after-noon. There was a lot of money changed hands on the result, giving utes on the mat, which was pro-nounced a draw after a clever bout. Next followed four fast rounds, which was a star bout, and proacross the goal line twice in the second half, ond half, of the losers, Capt. Tom Aubrey made several good gains, but the slippery footing made long runs difficult. More, the other halfback, proved a strong runner and a hard man to down, and Frisbie did the heavy line boring in fine style, once going through for 15 yards. McNamara got some At the opening of the game, Rick-etts kicked off to McNamara, who was downed by Swan. Yale Consoli-

was the result of a blocked kick. Hutchinson for Pennsylvania had punted to Cornell's 5 yard line and in attempting to kick out from behind the goal line Simpson's punt was blocked by Heilman for Pennsylvania. Heilman darted after the ball and fell on the pigskin before a Cornell man could tackle him. The touchdown was made well to one side of the field and the put out for a try at goal was fumbled.

When Barnes and Collins faced up, it was remarked that the Springfield man's scales that gave his weight as 160, must have been about 15 pounds shy. The bout for a bout 15 pounds shy. The bout for should have dimmed the limelight in which the Rose alleys star was hasking he is not posing as the competitive superior of Mr. Murphy. Collins put up an even deverer fight in the second bout, but the weight of Barnes told, and he got the fall in the second seconds on a half-neison of croth hold, after Collins had made him show all he knew to win out.
